

In recognition of Bill Penn's 30 years of service to the Upper Cumberland as well as his unequalled loyalty to his broadcast teammates, the Stonecom family created the Bill Penn Broadcast Scholarship.

This $2,500 scholarship provides students interested in broadcast-related fields the chance to begin their collegiate career with support from the stations of Stonecom. As a Bill Penn Broadcast Scholarship recipient, we hope you will use this hand-up as a first step toward becoming a leader in the broadcast industry. You can serve your community as the next generation, following Bill Penn's lead.

The scholarship is based on your academic record, your service both inside and outside the school, your extracurricular and work endeavors, and your desire to begin a career in broadcast-related fields.

This includes broadcasting, communications, engineering, journalism, marketing, or public relations.

The scholarship is designed to help students across the Upper Cumberland for fall semester.

From the staff, past and present, who worked with Bill and try each day to serve the community with his focus on people, we are proud to offer you the chance to begin your broadcast career with the Bill Penn Broadcast Scholarship.
